Top Hatter Times

August 2014

Volume 63

August 1st, 2014.

Hello everyone and Happy Birthday to all our August Birthday Friends!

Miss Ellie is looking so good and has the greatest cute hair cut! I hope She keeps it. She is still a little incapacitated but it is always great to see her when She visited the Studio. Hopefully She will be back soon if only for a few days a week.

It has come to my attention that some Students are not diligent regarding canceling their lessons. Our teachers are always available for your appointments but it is most important that you let them know at least 24 hrs. beforehand if you intend to cancel. Please remember that should you not cancel your lesson within 24 hours, an hour will be taken off your program. Of course emergencies are totally acceptable.

Norman has changed the date for "Stars Dancing for Cures" to September 20, 2014. The Heritage Dance Foundation will be partnering with "Cures for the Colors" (mine is Orange) a non profit support for cancer patients founded by Southeastern Oncology in Goldsboro, NC. All the funds will remain in Wayne County to help cancer patients.

Dr. Zwerling will be producing the fundraising event while Norman and Ella Hooker are the Chairpersons for the event and also will be organizing and teaching all the cancer patients, students and teachers.

Joy and her cohorts have already been busy getting Sponsors and all the Students are totally supporting the new "Cure". Should you need to know more about Stars Dancing for Cures (www.starsdancingforcures.com) and/or "Cure for Colors" give Norman Hooker a call at 919-738-5461.

Lost and found: Please be aware that all articles left at ZPAC and Top Hat will be either trashed or sent to the Salvation after a month. (Kidding) However Guys, take care of your stuff! Speaking of which, JoAnn has misplaced her glasses. These glasses are very expensive as Jo has special issues with her eyes.

Top Hat's Showcase is just around the corner (Saturday October, 4th) and with "Cure for the Colors" and the Showcase, private lessons are at a premium. Please contact your Teacher re your Private lessons.

As for the Studio: All is well. Norman's Ballroom classes continue. Beginners, Thursday at 7PM. Monday, Intermediate, 7PM and Advanced at 8PM. The new Shag classes commence, August 31st.

As always, we love to see you all at your classes and Private Lessons.

Happy Summer and Happy Dancing.

Patti

Stars Dancing for Cures

Norman and Ella Mae Hooker, co- organizers and professional Ballroom dance instructors for Stars Dancing for Cures. "This fun event will not only raise awareness for cancer prevention, but it will also help support our Colors for Cures fundraising efforts." The event will feature fourteen well know names from Wayne County who are cancer survivors. They will be paired with dancers and instructed by Norman and Ella-Mae Hooker of Top Hat Ballroom Dance Studio. They will learn one dance to execute before a judging panel on September 20, 2014. You will also be able to make a donation and vote for your favorite dancer online at www.starsdancingforcures.com . Awards will go to the dancer with the most online votes and to the best dancer of the evening. A heavy hors deoeuvres will also be served the night of the benefit. Dinner is at 6:00 p.m. and will feature dessert, and a cash bar. The show will start promptly at 7:15pm with special guests.

For more information call:
 Norman Hooker at (919) 738-5461

About Southeastern Cancer Care

Southeastern Cancer Care is a support organization for cancer patients and their families in eastern North Carolina. Southeastern Cancer Care exists to assist cancer patients and their families with basic living (food, utilities, required transportation); emotional encouragement (support groups, prosthetics/wigs, volunteer opportunities) and assistance with cancer care (financial assistance for treatments, prescriptions). These services will be provided through fund raising efforts such as: sponsorships in a memorial garden, athletic events such as walks/runs, general donations, grants and general underwriting

Miss Patti's Dance Tip of the Month

We are dancing for the Cures for the Colors in September. I hope everyone in the Top Hat family joins in and makes this project a success. Norman and Ella Hooker have already donated over a 100 hours of teaching and organizing this event for cancer. On Monday at 6pm we have our first joint meeting with Southeastern Oncology and I hope you all attend.
