This Championship will take place during the “closed”

Arthur Murray Studios International Championships (a.k.a.

Superama) which runs Wednesday, 30 October – Sunday, 3

November. It is not open to the general public, and only those associated with the Arthur Murray Studios, WDC World Ballroom Competitors, their family and friends will be permitted to attend.

The WDC is the world authority for Professional Dancing incorporating the World Competitive Dance Committee and the World Social Dance Committee.

The World Dance Council Ltd, until 1st June 2006 known as the World Dance & Dance Sport Council Ltd (WD&DSC), formerly the International Council of Ballroom Dancing (ICBD), was established on 22nd September 1950 in Edinburgh, Scotland.

The aims of the Council are to encourage and promote dancing through its membership.

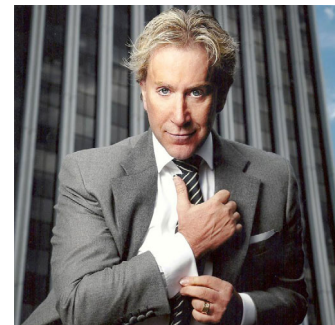

The members elect the Presidium, (Company Directors/Vice-Presidents) every three years. New members are elected by the members at the annual meetings of the General Council.

As you browse through the numerous pages of this website I am sure you will find the information on any aspect of the Dance profession that you are looking for.

In the meantime allow me to wish you “Happy Dancing” where ever you may be in the world.

Donnie Burns MBE

President
